

A new home for Banana the tortoise at Princess Christian Care Home

We feel extremely grateful to have been gifted a lovely new cage for our pet therapy tortoise here at Princess Christian Care Home.

The father of wonderful young lady called Leigh kindly made us the enclosure and it looks very professional. Banana has already tried it out and loves it; it will make a great home for him.

These lovely, kind people even delivered it to us so a huge thank you to Leigh and her dad!