

Belly dancing fun on Fathers Day at Princess Christian Care Home

On Friday we enjoyed a Father's Day celebration here at Princess Christian Care Home and we welcomed our wonderful belly dancer and her husband who played the drums for us.

Our residents had a wonderful time trying on hats and practicing playing the drums.

Some of our ladies joined in with the belly dancing and they were very good! We certainly have a talented bunch at our Home.

