

Congratulations to Christine Foster at Princess Christian Care Home

Christine completes Team Leading qualification on 16 June 2018

Princess Christian Care Home Manager, Mario Taherian, is extremely proud to congratulate Christine Foster (Recreation & Well-Being Lead) on her completion of the FISSS Intermediate Level Apprenticeship in Team Leading, in the Business Skills Sector.

Christine works extremely hard coordinating Princess Christian's Team of Recreation and Well-Being Champions who enrich the daily lives of their residents. Working together, Christine and her team plan and facilitate daily and weekly timetables of meaningful activities tailored to their residents' needs, hobbies and interests.

Princess Christian Care Home staff teams provide exceptional care and recreational activities for their 90 residents, all with varying care needs. The Home offers residential, nursing, dementia and complex care.

Congratulations to Christine for this impressive achievement and all her hard work at Princess Christian.
