

Cosmin Cristea named as finalist at the National Care Awards 2023

Care Chef of the Year

Head Chef at Princess Christian Care Home, Cosmin Cristea, is held in very high esteem across the group of 13 Care Homes owned and managed by leading South East care provider Nellsar Ltd.

Everyone across the Nellsar group and the team at our flagship Surrey Care Home, Princess Christian, is overjoyed at Cosmin's latest achievement of being named as finalist at this year's National Care Awards.

The Care Chef of the Year award is a highly competitive category and Cosmin is in good company among the other six finalists from Hamberley Care Homes, Care UK, Avery Healthcare, TLC Care, Aria Care and Porthaven Care Homes.

Returning for its 25th year, the National Care Awards will celebrate their silver anniversary event with the best of the social care sector at a prestigious ceremony on 24 November at Excel Centre London.

Please join us in showing your support for Cosmin!

"Wishing you every success for this event Cosmin and all your future endeavours!"
