

Making Remembrance crafts at Princess Christian Care Home

Our lovely residents here at Princess Christian Care Home have been busy making Remembrance crafts this week; they enjoyed making sun-catcher poppies which they hung around our communities in the Home. And now we just need the sun!

Our lovely resident Carol decided not to join in but only because she didn't want to leave her best buddy Buttons – they really adore each other!