

Photo fun at Princess Christian Care Home

It was World Photography Day on Wednesday 19 August, so we decided to mark the occasion with some fun selfies and photos with our residents and staff here at Princess Christian Care Home.

The day aims to inspire photographers across the planet to have fun making images, and we certainly did!

We particularly enjoyed using the photo filters as you can see...

