

Shooting range fun at Princess Christian Care Home

Last week our Princess Christian Care Home residents tried their hand at our shooting range tin can alley game – and what sharp shooters we have here!

There was so much fun and laughter had and our lovely resident Carol turned out to be an excellent shot!

Everyone is looking forward to playing it again soon.