

Sporting new uniforms at Princess Christian Care Home

Our Recreation and Well-Being Team at Princess Christian Care Home have received new uniforms this week.

And they've been posing in their bright new tops (hats optional!) for everyone to see.

Our residents love it, although we have had EasyJet and Tango jokes!

They'll certainly be seen around our Home and bring a splash of colour to the corridors of Princess Christian!